Because we feel that the pictures can tell the story of our school's life by themselves, the 1971 INTERMONT offers you this opening section without benefit of slogans, or songs, or borrowed poetry, or poor prose.

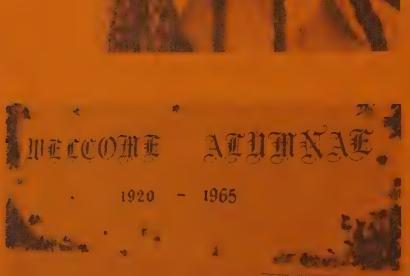

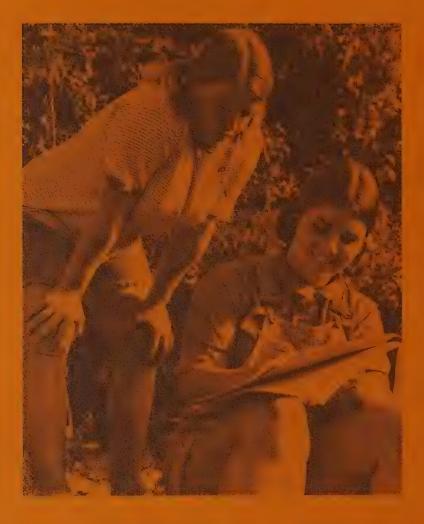

Freshman Proclamation Song

VIC, here we stand, half asleep in the dawning of our knowledge. Here we stand, young, not wise, As you lead us to the threshold of our minds.

You give, not knowing the pain in giving, Guiding us through the ocean of life. We are daughters of life, longing for love, And to VIC, we come.

Life goes not backward nor cares with yesterday. Our life must grow onward to help our troubled age. But we will not just talk of our deeds — We are women of peace and women of love and women Of VIC.

When we must leave, our hearts will be sad. We will say farewell to you and the youth we spent with you.

If in the twilight of memory we should meet again, Then again will come together and sing once more — That we are restless as sails, but ready as the sea — To help our troubled world, to help our fellow man; To lead to peace and love and joy — As women of VIC.

Sophomore Proclamation Song

The foundations of a friendship that we've found at VIC,

All the knowledge and the learning that forever ours will be,

The presence of each other is the bond of VIC. The eternal light that paves the way toward all our destinies,

In this autumn of our Sophomore year we pledged Our loyalty to hold and keep forever the spirit of VIC. So together we may conquer the walls of our destiny.

More than our minds can possibly be stretched, More than our hearts can possibly be stirred, More than our Sisters can ever mean to us, With this we walk hand in hand, on roads of today.

Love is the word known only to us,
The gain of friendships gained through the walks
Of learning — loving, teaching, knowing, caring;
Triumph like a dream comes only once in life
Only this success of the key to life and
This our VIC.

We give to thee and we assure you — No one else could love you more.

He fought his doubts and gathered strength,
He would not make his judgment blind,
He faced the specters of the mind
And laid them; thus he came at length

To find a stronger faith his own,

And power was with him into the night,

Which makes the darkness and the light,

And dwells not in the light alone.

Alfred Lord Tennyson

Administration

Barbara Davis, Editor

Dr. Floyd V. Turner President

Virginia Intermont College is experiencing one of the most important periods in her history — that of expanding the two-year program into a four-year program. It has seen in recent years the erection of a variety of buildings and facilities and innovations in the academic programs.

While this is taking place there is one sector of the college that is not forgotten — the individual student. The social and academic programs are developed for today's college woman which prepares her for further achievement and advancement. All of this is made possible by the generous and dedicated efforts of President Floyd V. Turner.

Dr. Turner and secretary, Annette Freeman

Norman L. Nunn

Academic Dean

Dr. Nunn dedicates his time to the academic progress of each student at Virginia Intermont College. He personally offers a helping hand to each student in need of academic guidance.

Anita Withers Dean of Students

Miss Withers involves herself in the everyday activities of every student at Virginia Intermont College. As Dean of Students she is concerned with the moral development of each student as exemplified in her involvement in the Student Government Association as its advisor.

Libby Hatcher, Secretary of Academic Records; Peggy Miller, Secretary to Dean of Students; Dean Nunn; Dean Withers; Mary Lynn Sayler, Secretary to Academic Dean.

Margaret Crumley
DIRECTOR OF ADMISSIONS

OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS — coordinates all admission procedures for students and relates to high schools the progress made by their students at V.I.C.

OFFICE OF DEVELOPMENT — plans college functions and seeks financial assistance from a variety of sources; guides the executive secretary to the Alumnae Association in her duties.

OFFICE OF EDUCATIONAL DE-VELOPMENT — allows all students having personal or educational problems to seek guidance with a full time counselor; co-ordinates the developmental reading program, faculty advising program, and field work done offcampus.

Rodney Taylor
DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

Ken Glass
DIRECTOR OF EDUCATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Kay Tolley

As the age of growth and development dawns on Virginia Intermont, the faculty is also playing an active part in the maturation and expansion.

They say "he is a teacher" which means he imparts information so others might learn; or "he is an instructor" which means he methodically encourages imitation; or "he is an educator" which means he stimulates the capacities of the individual.

TO OUR FACULTY:

We rely on you for individual and group guidance as Virginia Intermont grows to its full four year program. Your ranks have been increased and we benefit accordingly. Our personal development as well as V.I.'s rests upon you!!!

We are growing up now -

You and I.

Are we ready to meet the world -

Take hold and call it ours?

Are we ready to leave our security here,

like a moth leaves her cocoon?

It won't be long now - only a few months -

only a few months.

I'm frightened.

Do they really come true - those dreams?

Will my life be what I want it to be?

Yes,

I'm

Growing

Up

Now.

Help me!

Involvement is the only way to preserve self, to keep from being engulfed in the swift current, drifting From one unlearned experience to another. This involvement contributes to the spirit, and the spirit grows.

Song Contest is one of Virginia Intermont's annual traditions which unify the classes. Many years have developed this contest and many people have worked very hard to help their class win. A girl is elected from each class to lead and conduct the girls in two songs composed by the class. Mary Debbie Gallen was the Sophomore's leader who brought victory to the class.

When our life starts,
We are the shell
With no pearl.
We are funny little beings,
With no claim on the world.

But life is a magnet into which we are drawn,

And from our first step

We are told to move on.

We walk slow at first, unsure of our way.
Then suddenly the sun appears
And it's a brand new day.
Not just 24 hours has passed,
But years of experience and you're a woman at last.

We walk up the gang plank of our dreams,
We are going to sail a wild blue sea.
As our life—loved blood does churn and boil,

Our dreams are unleashed and our hearts uncoiled.

Life is not completed till you grab a ray of sun,

And make the beauties of man and nature unite as one.

We turn our heads upward, A tear in our eye, And we know to make it It's do or die.

REFLECTION — The man who thinks, reads, studies, and meditates has intelligence cut in his features, stamped on his brow, gleaming in his eyes, and sooner or later the face tells the status or the condition of the soul — a reflection of the divinity within the man.

Phases of Riding

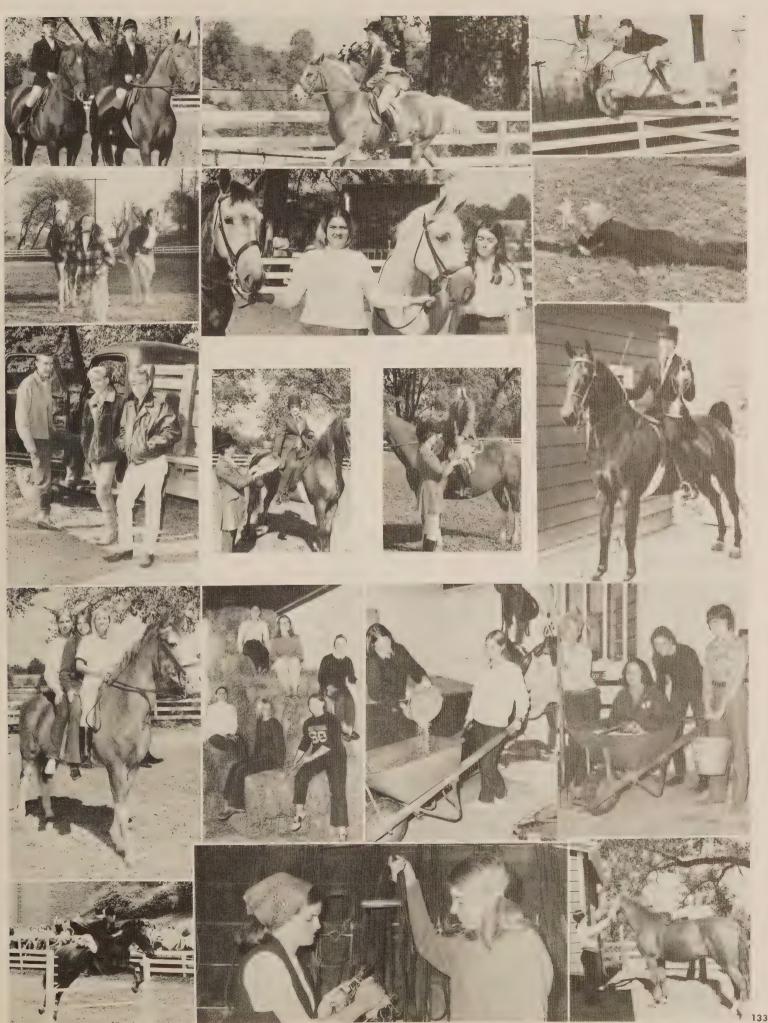

Informality and enthusiasm are prevalent when riding students participate in a Gymkhana, featuring fun and games on horseback.

The Annual College Horse Show leads the list of commencement events.

Spirit in competitive riding runs high at V.I. This year the riding department sent 35 students and 25 horses to compete in a Horse Show held at Sullins. V.I. girls returned with 9 trophies and 24 ribbons.

Volleyball is one of the most popular sports at V.I. The varsity team and the girls who play in intramurals show an abundance of enthusiasm during the games. The highlight of the Volleyball season is the Faculty-Varsity Team game. This year, the Faculty won two out of three games to upset the varsity players.

Volleyball

Swimming and Diving

The Swimming and Diving Team, with 2 wins and 3 losses, had a fair competitive year. Although the Team did not win all their meets, the girls did prove to be good swimmers and divers by putting constant pressure on their opponents.

Above are the members of the Swimming and Diving Team. They are:

Field Hockey

The Field Hockey Team had a short season due to poor weather conditions. The team won one game and lost one game. Although the weather dampened the ground it did not dampen the girls' enthusiasm.

Team members are: D. Motley, Miss Gallahan, L. Conklin, N. Eppinger, J. Eppinger, M. Woody, V. Florio, R. Bennett, L. Smith, M. Manges.

For the Young Republican Club it has been a really exciting and eventful year, campaigning on campus and in the local area. These young citizens worked for the cause and the candidate they believed in. One of the biggest events was the mock election held after the visit of President Nixon.

Now the members settle back to a well deserved rest, but soon they will be moving again. Moving toward becoming responsible citizens.

In planning the two issues of Cothurnus, the creative literary publication of the college, the staff and advisors have had four major objectives. They attempted a correlation between the literature contributed and the artistic design of the publication, better quality of content, and a greater variety of material included.

Winter brought the first issue with high anticipation for the second final issue to follow in late spring. Staff members received congratulations for their impressive efforts when student praise continually dominated campus comments after each issue.

The Cothurnus helped provide a means for temporary individual expression.

Without the cooperation of so many people the Intermont 1971 would have been impossible to produce. The few names on this page represent the core of those re sponsible — but not fully: There were countless hours in the 5th Intermont carrel as well as the staff room, on the phone in tears, and all night sessions behind the typewriter — hours that only a few will remember or want to remember. Some, of course, did more work than others. To all those involved, we hope the yearbook will be your reward.

To Susan Kelly, the yearbook staff says "Thank you."

Boots and Saddle Club

Each of us, throughout our lives,
Continually moves forward,
Unsure of where the road will lead.
We look toward the future
With strong-willed hearts,
And struggle during the present
With able-minded bodies.
Most will achieve their goals,
Though there are those who will not.
But a very promised few will excel,
It is these honored persons who have lived;

And lived, they have done so well.

Glamour Best Dressed

Virginia Intermont entered Miss Dixie Boyd as a candidate in Glamour magazines "Best Dressed Coed" contest. She was selected by a panel of three judges after appearing with nine other girls competing.

This contest is part of Glamour's annual search for outstanding college girls who represent the best of each year's changing campus life. To unify this choice, requirements of her leadership in two field have to be met: 1) Fashion and grooming, and 2) Some extra curricular activity of hers on campus or in the community.

SPEECH

Alumnae Award

The highest honor a girl may receive at Virginia Intermont is the Alumnae Award. This is for the girl who epitomizes the highest ideals of the college. Chosen each year by a committee of the alumnae, the recipient must excel in scholarship, leadership, character, service and traditions through her years at Intermont. This year the award goes to Miss Susan Kelly, who serves as the Editor and Chief of the year-book, a 1971 Torchbearer, and who was the Ideal Freshman, her freshman year.

For Susan, these many honors are merely reflections of the honor which she has brought to Virginia Intermont through her concern for others, her friendly manner, and her ever-present smile. Susan Kelly is truly a "Miss Ideal Intermont."

Susan Kelly "Miss Ideal Intermont"

Susan Kelly

The Margaret Noffsinger Memorial Scholarship

The Margaret Noffsinger Memorial Scholarship was started by the Virginia Intermont faculty immediately after the death of Margaret, the daughter of president and Mrs. Noffsinger, in July, 1933. The interest gained from this fund is awarded yearly to an outstanding returning freshman. The recipient for the 1970-1971 scholarship is Miss Susan Kelly of Ft. Mitchell, Kentucky. Susan has served as Editor-in-Chief of the 1970-1971 yearbook, a member of Phi Theta Kappa, and the Vice-President of the Baptist Student Union.

Marty Stout

The Dean Marguerite Pflug Scholarship

The Dean Marguerite Pflug Fund was started by the trustees in 1957 in honor of the forty-three years of service that Miss Pflug rendered to the college. The recipient, Miss Marty Stout of Monroeville, Pennsylvania, was chosen on the basis of academic achievement, leadership, and character. Miss Stout has served in the S.G.A. and is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, she has also been on the Honorable Mention List and Who's Who Among American Junior Colleges.

Debbie Richeson

Dorothy Douglas Dickey Award

The Dorothy Douglas Dickey award is to be given to a junior music major, for studying during her senior year at Virginia Intermont College. The recipient's musical talent and future plans in the field of music must be recognized by the senior, junior, and faculty advisors of the chapter. Her attitude, character, initiative and contributions to the cause of Phi Beta and Virginia Intermont shall be the prime considerations. This year the 1970-1971 award goes to Miss Debbie Richeson of Bremen, Ohio. Debbie is a member of the Bristol Concert Choir and the president of the Potpourri, a campus singing group. She is also a member of Phi Theta Kappa, and the former treasurer of the Phi Beta Fraternity.

Wendy Saroch Helen Farr Scholarship

The Helen Farr Scholarship is an annual scholarship to be awarded by the Alpha Beta chapter, to one of its sophomore members. The recipient is to use the scholarship during her junior year at Virginia Intermont College. This year the scholarship goes to Miss Wendy Saroch of Annapolis, Maryland. Wendy, a voice major, was the former president of Phi Beta Music Fraternity, a member of Phi Theta Kappa National Honorary Fraternity, and was named to Who's Who. This year, Miss Saroch is spending her junior year abroad studying music in Vienna, Austria.

Torchbearers

A tradition at Virginia Intermont for more than a quarter of a century is the selection of honored students. This year nine girls were elected as Torchbearers, three from each class. Torchbearers for 1971 were nominated and selected by the student body not only for their accomplishments at Virginia Intermont, but also for their excellence in leadership, responsibility, and promise of achievement in the future.

Among the Torchbearers this year are three class officers, the student body president, S.G.A. members, and several presidents of active clubs on campus.
